DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 8 is functional-any structural member can be connected to another if desired.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-2, 6-14, 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by

McManus et al..

See figure 11, first frame member 280, and second frame member with first and second support rails 284,286 and floor 24.

As to claim 6, see intervening gear rack 288/290.

As to claim 8, see figure 9 and 272/222.

As to claim 11, McManus et al. has multiple frame members.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McManus et al..

Welding is a commonly known method of attachment, desirable in that it is very strong and quickly accomplished. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in McManus et al. welded attachment as commonly known.

Applicant may seasonally challenge, for the official record in this application, this and any other statement of judicial notice in timely manner in response to this office action. Please specify the exact statement to be challenged. Applicant is reminded, with respect to the specific challenge put forth, of the duty of disclosure under Rule 56 to disclose material which is pertinent to patentability including claim rejections challenged by applicant.

7. Claims 4-5, 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McManus et al. in view of Smith.

McManus et al. uses channel shaped beams. Smith teaches that vehicle support beams are interchangeably channel, I, H, right circular, cylindrical, tubular, or rectangular in cross section. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in McManus et al. rectangular or tubular support rails as taught by Smith as a known alternative in the art. Motivation is increased strength of the additional wall as an engineering trade-off to increased weight and cost.

8. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McManus et al. in view of Schneider, US 5,902,001.

McManus et al. uses offset floor heights, a distinct disadvantage in the necessary step between floors as a tripping hazard. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in McManus et al. flush floors aligned as taught by Schneider in order to avoid these hazards.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Rasmussen, Nye, and Ragonese detail dual support rails.
